Male visitor found unresponsive in waters off Waiohai

POIPU – A male visitor from Massachusetts was found unresponsive in waters off Waiohai Bay in Po'ipū on Monday.

He has been identified as 69-year-old Kenneth Shimomura.

According to reports, the man was snorkeling in shallow water at the east end of Waiohai Bay, when he was found unresponsive at approximately 11:40 a.m. Bystanders brought the man to shore and responding lifeguards administered CPR with the assistance of firefighters from the Kōloa station.

Medics then transported the man to Wilcox Hospital where he was pronounced dead.
